[This book] examines how the Vietnamese War has continued to serve as a stage for the shoring up of American imperialist adventure and for the (re)production of American and Vietnamese American identities. Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration, this book retheorizes the connections among history, memory, and power and refashions the fields of American Studies, Asian American Studies, and refugee studies.

Co-Presented by the Department of Ethnic Studies, Coalition for Critical Asian American Studies, Asian & Pacific Islander Student Alliance, & Kaibigang Pilipn@
