

The Asian, Pacific Islander, Middle Eastern, Desi American (APIMEDA) Project on Militarism & Migration Studies presents

Vietnamese in Orange County

book launch & photo exhibit

with Linda Võ, Thúy Võ Đặng, & Tram Le

Wednesday, April 29, 2015

book talk 12:00pm – 1:00pm

UCSD Cross-Cultural Center, Comunidad

light refreshments to follow in the ArtSpace for exhibit

Thúy Võ Đặng is the Archivist for the Southeast Asian Archive and Regional History in UC Irvine's Libraries. She received her M.A. and Ph.D. in Ethnic Studies from the University of California, San Diego, where she specialized in race and ethnicity, oral history, cultural studies, immigration and refugee studies, community studies, and Asian American studies.

Linda Trinh Võ is an Associate Professor in the Department of Asian American Studies at University of California, Irvine. She received her Ph.D. from the University of California, San Diego. She is author of Mobilizing an Asian American Community and co-editor of three books: Labor Versus Empire: Race, Gender, and Migration; Asian American Women: the "Frontiers" Reader; and Contemporary Asian American Communities: Intersection and Divergences.

Tram Le received her B.A. in Business Administration-Marketing from California State University, Northridge (CSUN) and has an M.A. from the Department of Asian American Studies at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). Her master's thesis, "Finding Home," investigates the journey of first-generation Vietnamese in Orange County through oral history and performance art.

A lecture series part of UC San Diego's Ethnic Studies Department's 25th Anniversary; a partnership with the Cross-Cultural Center's 20th Anniversary, the Student Affirmative Action Committee's (SAAC) 40th Anniversary, & the 9th Annual Asian & Pacific Islander American Heritage Celebration

A Project of Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion's Innovation Grant

Co-Presented By: the APIMEDA Resource & Research Center Committee, the Department of Ethnic Studies, the Cross-Cultural Center, the Pan-Asian Staff Association along with the APIMEDA Student Organizations Advisory Committee composed of the Coalition for Critical Asian American Studies, Asian & Pacific Islander Student Alliance, Kaibigang Pilipin @, Muslim Student Alliance, Coalition of South Asian Peoples, Kamalayan Kollektive, Pan-Arab Student Alliance, SouthEast Asian Collective, Students for Justice in Palestine, and the Student Affirmative Action Committee