

Call for Proposals

2018 GRANTS IN CRITICAL REFUGEE STUDIES

For Faculty, Students, Community Organizations, and Artists

Grant period: January 2018 through December 2018

Application deadline: Monday, October 16, 2017, 5:00pm PDT

The UC Critical Refugee Studies Collective (CRSC) invites grant proposals from faculty, enrolled graduate and undergraduate students from any campus in the University of California system, as well as community organizations and artists working in the field of Critical Refugee Studies for projects to be undertaken from January-December 2018.

In this second of our four annual grant cycles, priority will be given to projects that focus on the theme of Land and Water, though we welcome all proposals that shift the reference point in refugee studies from that of the state, humanitarian organizations, and policy makers to that of the refugees.

Additional details about the CRSC grants, application process, and deadline can be found on our website at criticalrefugeestudies.com.

Funded by the University of California Office of the President (UCOP), the UC CRSC is a four-year initiative aimed at making the University of California the premier institution for critical refugee teaching, research, and public initiatives.
